VERSE 1
  G/B Em
                         in every pain
      In every struggle
                          C Em of the hurting the places I've been Through all
  G/B
                   C Em
      I know it's refining but it hurts just the same G/B
                         Em
      Before I can feel it my answer will be CHORUS 1
                         C Em Still l will praise Still I will praise You Lord
VERSE 2
  G/B Em
      In every season
                        Your promise remains
                            Em
                                You never change
      Through every heartache
  G/B
      My worship's an offering an anthem of faith
  G/B
                        Em
      Before I believe it my answer will be BRIDGE
                                                     D
          hope will be eternally Your faithfulness remains
                                            Em
      (So) my song will be of victory, O God You make a way
